This table reflects the revision history for NSR-POL-RET-014. Only the version identified on the cover page of this document is in effect as of the Effective Date shown there.

1. Purpose and Scope

This document sets out how NorthStar Retail handles returns and refunds across all sales channels, including the Website, the mobile application, and any physical pop-up locations operated by the Company from time to time. It is intended to give Support Team personnel and Customers a consistent, written reference for how a return request is evaluated and processed, so that outcomes do not depend on which agent handles a given request.

This Policy applies to all Product categories sold under the NorthStar Retail brand, subject to the category-specific exclusions set out in Section 4 below, and subject to any more specific policy that is expressly referenced for a particular Product category elsewhere in this document. This Policy does not apply to purchases made through a third-party marketplace listing operated under the Company's brand but fulfilled by a third party, which are instead governed by that third party's own return terms.

2. Definitions

For purposes of this Policy, the following terms have the meanings set out below. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this section have the meaning given to them elsewhere in this document.

2.1 Account

"Account" means the registered Customer profile associated with an email address on the Website, through which Orders are placed and tracked.

2.2 Authorized User

"Authorized User" means any individual permitted by a Customer to place Orders on an Account, whether or not that individual is the Account holder.

2.3 Business Day

"Business Day" means Monday through Saturday, excluding public holidays observed by the Company, unless a specific section of this document states otherwise.

2.4 Cart

"Cart" means the collection of Products a Customer has selected for purchase prior to completing Checkout.

2.5 Checkout

"Checkout" means the process by which a Customer confirms a Cart, provides a Delivery Address and Payment Method, and places an Order.

2.6 Clearance

"Clearance" means Product pricing marked as such on the product page, reduced from standard pricing as part of a distinct clearance sale event rather than a seasonal Promotional Period.

2.7 Company

"Company" means NorthStar Retail and its subsidiaries, successors, and assigns.

2.8 Confirmation Email

See "Order Confirmation" below.

2.9 Coupon Code

"Coupon Code" means an alphanumeric code entered at Checkout to apply a specific discount, where a discount requires a code rather than applying automatically.

2.10 Customer

"Customer" means an individual or entity that has placed an Order through the Website or the mobile application.

2.11 Delivery Address

"Delivery Address" means the address specified by the Customer at Checkout to which an Order is shipped.

2.12 Delivery Date

"Delivery Date" means the date on which a shipping carrier records an Order as delivered to the Delivery Address.

2.13 Discount Voucher

"Discount Voucher" means a redeemable credit issued under the Loyalty Rewards Program in exchange for accumulated points.

2.14 Effective Date

"Effective Date" means the date stated on the cover page of this document on which the version of the Policy set out herein takes effect.

2.15 Final Sale

"Final Sale" means a Product explicitly marked as such on its product page at the time an Order is placed, indicating that the Product is sold at a clearance or promotional price that is not eligible for standard return.

2.16 Fulfillment Center

"Fulfillment Center" means a warehouse facility, whether operated by the Company or a logistics partner, from which Orders are picked, packed, and handed to a Shipping Carrier.

2.17 Gift Card

"Gift Card" means a prepaid credit instrument, physical or digital, redeemable toward the purchase price of an Order.

2.18 Grievance Officer

"Grievance Officer" means the individual designated by the Company to receive and address Customer grievances in accordance with applicable law, as further described in the jurisdiction-specific section of this document.

2.19 Loyalty Program

See "Loyalty Rewards Program" below.

2.20 Loyalty Rewards Program

"Loyalty Rewards Program" means the points-based rewards program described in the Loyalty Rewards Program document, under which points are earned on eligible purchases and redeemed for Discount Vouchers.

2.21 Marketplace Listing

"Marketplace Listing" means a Product listed under the Company brand but sold and fulfilled by a third-party seller rather than directly by the Company.

2.22 Order

"Order" means a confirmed purchase transaction placed by a Customer and evidenced by an Order Confirmation.

2.23 Order Confirmation

"Order Confirmation" means the electronic message sent to a Customer at the email address on file confirming the details of an Order, including the Order ID, Products purchased, and pricing applied.

2.24 Order ID

"Order ID" means the unique reference number assigned to an Order at the time it is placed, used to identify the Order in all subsequent Customer Support Team correspondence.

2.25 Payment Method

"Payment Method" means the card, bank transfer, Gift Card, or store credit balance used to pay for an Order at Checkout.

2.26 Personal Information

"Personal Information" means information that identifies or relates to an identifiable Customer, handled in accordance with the Company's data handling practices referenced elsewhere.

2.27 Point of Sale

"Point of Sale" means the moment at Checkout when an Order is confirmed and payment is captured or authorized.

2.28 Policy

"Policy" means this document, as amended from time to time in accordance with the Amendment and Modification provision in the General Provisions section.

2.29 Product

"Product" means any physical item offered for sale by the Company through the Website or the mobile application.

2.30 Product Page

"Product Page" means the Website page describing an individual Product, including its price, category, and any applicable Final Sale or Clearance marking.

2.31 Promotional Period

"Promotional Period" means the limited time window during which a seasonal promotion is active, as described in the Seasonal Promotions Policy.

2.32 Restocking Fee

"Restocking Fee" means the fee described in the Return and Refund Policy that may apply to a returned Product not meeting standard condition requirements.

2.33 Return Window

"Return Window" means the 30 day period, measured from the Delivery Date, during which a Customer may initiate a return under the Return and Refund Policy.

2.34 Service Level

"Service Level" means the response and resolution time commitments described in the Customer Support Policy.

2.35 Shipping Carrier

"Shipping Carrier" means the third-party logistics provider engaged by the Company to deliver an Order from a Fulfillment Center to a Delivery Address.

2.36 Store Credit

"Store Credit" means a non-cash balance held on a Customer's Account, usable toward future Orders, issued in lieu of a refund to an original Payment Method under the circumstances described in the Return and Refund Policy.

2.37 Support Team

"Support Team" means Company personnel or contracted personnel authorized to respond to Customer inquiries through the channels described in this document or in the Customer Support Policy.

2.38 Ticket

"Ticket" means a single recorded Customer inquiry raised through chat, email, or phone with the Support Team.

2.39 Third-Party Seller

"Third-Party Seller" means the seller of record for a Marketplace Listing, distinct from the Company.

2.40 Tracking Number

"Tracking Number" means the identifier issued by a Shipping Carrier used to trace the location and delivery status of an Order.

2.41 Warranty Period

"Warranty Period" means the coverage duration described in the Warranty Information document, which varies by Product category as set out there.

2.42 Website

"Website" means the online storefront operated by the Company, together with the associated mobile application.

2.43 Address Verification

"Address Verification" means the automated check performed at Checkout to confirm a Delivery Address is deliverable by the relevant Shipping Carrier before an Order is confirmed.

2.44 Backorder

"Backorder" means a Product included in an Order that is temporarily out of stock at the Fulfillment Center and scheduled for a later ship date, as communicated in the Order Confirmation or a subsequent update.

2.45 Bundle

"Bundle" means two or more Products sold together as a single Order line at a combined price, which for return and warranty purposes is generally treated as separate Products unless stated otherwise on the Product Page.

2.46 Cancellation Window

"Cancellation Window" means the limited period after an Order is placed, typically before it reaches Processing status, during which a Customer may cancel the Order without initiating a return.

2.47 Carrier Exception

"Carrier Exception" means an event reported by a Shipping Carrier, such as a failed delivery attempt or a damaged-in-transit report, that affects the expected Delivery Date of an Order.

2.48 Category

"Category" means the classification assigned to a Product on its Product Page, such as Electronics, Grocery, or Apparel, used throughout this Policy to describe which rules apply to which Products.

2.49 Chargeback

"Chargeback" means a Payment Method reversal initiated by a Customer's card issuer or bank rather than through the Company's own return or refund process.

2.50 Class Action Waiver

See the Class Action Waiver provision in the General Provisions section of this document.

2.51 Confirmation Number

See "Order ID" above.

2.52 Consumer

"Consumer" has the meaning given to that term under applicable consumer protection law in the Customer's jurisdiction, and is used interchangeably with "Customer" in sections of this Policy addressing statutory rights.

2.53 Credit Note

See "Store Credit" above.

2.54 Damaged in Transit

"Damaged in Transit" means a Product that arrives visibly damaged due to mishandling by a Shipping Carrier, distinct from a manufacturing defect covered under the Warranty Information document.

2.55 Data Controller

"Data Controller" means the Company in its capacity as the entity determining the purposes and means of processing a Customer's Personal Information.

2.56 Delivery Estimate

"Delivery Estimate" means the non-binding estimated Delivery Date range shown at Checkout, distinct from a guaranteed delivery commitment.

2.57 Dispatch

"Dispatch" means the point at which an Order leaves a Fulfillment Center and is handed to a Shipping Carrier, at which point a Tracking Number is generated.

2.58 Duplicate Order

"Duplicate Order" means a second Order placed in error for materially the same Cart contents within a short window of an earlier Order, which Support Team may cancel on request before Dispatch.

2.59 Eligible Purchase

"Eligible Purchase" means, for purposes of the Loyalty Rewards Program, an Order that has not been fully returned or refunded and on which points have not already been reversed.

2.60 Expedited Processing

See "Express Delivery" below.

2.61 Express Delivery

"Express Delivery" means the paid delivery upgrade described in the Shipping and Delivery document, distinct from standard delivery.

2.62 Gift Order

"Gift Order" means an Order placed with a Delivery Address different from the Customer's own Account address, subject to the same return and refund terms as any other Order unless stated otherwise.

2.63 Grace Period

"Grace Period" means any short additional period referenced elsewhere in this Policy during which a deadline is treated as met despite falling slightly outside the stated window, such as the public holiday extension described in the Return Window provisions.

2.64 Hold

"Hold" means a temporary authorization placed on a Payment Method at Checkout, separate from the final capture of funds, which may appear on a Customer's statement before an Order is Dispatched.

2.65 Inventory Allocation

"Inventory Allocation" means the system process by which available stock at a Fulfillment Center is reserved against a specific Order at the time it is placed.

2.66 Invoice

"Invoice" means the itemized record of an Order's pricing, taxes, and any discounts applied, available to a Customer on request.

2.67 Manufacturer

"Manufacturer" means the original producer of a Product, distinct from the Company, referenced in the Warranty Information document where warranty terms originate from the Manufacturer rather than the Company directly.

2.68 Order Status

"Order Status" means the current stage of an Order in the fulfillment process, such as Processing, Dispatched, or Delivered, visible to a Customer on the Website.

2.69 Partial Refund

"Partial Refund" means a refund issued for less than the full amount paid for a Product, such as where a Restocking Fee applies.

2.70 Personal Data

See "Personal Information" above.

2.71 Price Match

"Price Match" means a discretionary adjustment the Company may make to an Order's price where a lower price for the same Product was available elsewhere at the time of purchase; this is not a guaranteed benefit under this Policy.

2.72 Processing

"Processing" means the Order Status between an Order being placed and it being Dispatched, during which the Cancellation Window may still be open.

2.73 Refund Method

See "Refund Method" as used in the Refunds section of the Return and Refund Policy.

2.74 Return Authorization

"Return Authorization" means the confirmation issued by the Support Team that a specific return request has been reviewed and approved under Sections 3 and 4 of the Return and Refund Policy.

2.75 Return Label

"Return Label" means the shipping label, prepaid or otherwise, provided to a Customer for sending a Product back to a Fulfillment Center as part of a return.

2.76 Sales Tax

"Sales Tax" means any tax, duty, or similar governmental charge applied to an Order in accordance with applicable law, shown separately on the Invoice.

2.77 Serial Number

"Serial Number" means the unique identifier assigned to an individual unit of certain Electronics Products, used to verify Warranty Period eligibility.

2.78 Shipping Confirmation

"Shipping Confirmation" means the notification sent to a Customer at the point of Dispatch, including the Tracking Number.

2.79 Split Shipment

"Split Shipment" means an Order fulfilled across more than one package or Dispatch event because its Products ship from different Fulfillment Centers or become available at different times.

2.80 Subscription Order

"Subscription Order" means a recurring Order configured by a Customer to repeat automatically at a set interval, where offered for a given Product.

2.81 Substitute Product

"Substitute Product" means a Product offered in place of an out-of-stock item, provided only with the Customer's prior consent.

2.82 Affiliate

"Affiliate" means, with respect to the Company, any entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the Company.

2.83 Applicable Law

"Applicable Law" means the laws, regulations, and binding regulatory guidance that apply to a given Order, Customer, or Product as the context requires.

2.84 Audit Trail

"Audit Trail" means the internal record the Company maintains of actions taken on an Order, Account, or Ticket, used for quality review and dispute resolution.

2.85 Availability

"Availability" means whether a Product is currently able to be added to a Cart and purchased, distinct from whether it is displayed on the Website.

2.86 Bulk Order

"Bulk Order" means an Order placed for a quantity of a single Product exceeding the threshold set from time to time for standard Consumer purchasing, which may be subject to separate commercial terms.

2.87 Business Hours

See "Business Day" above; where a specific time window within a Business Day is referenced, it is stated separately in the relevant section.

2.88 Cart Abandonment

"Cart Abandonment" means a Cart that has not proceeded to Checkout within a set period, which may trigger a reminder communication under the Electronic Communications Consent provision.

2.89 Chat Session

"Chat Session" means a single continuous chat interaction between a Customer and the Support Team, which may span multiple Tickets if more than one issue is raised.

2.90 Claim

"Claim" means a formal assertion by a Customer that a Product, Order, or Company action did not meet the terms of the applicable Policy, distinct from general Feedback.

2.91 Closed Ticket

"Closed Ticket" means a Ticket marked resolved by the Support Team, which may be reopened by the Customer within a limited period if the underlying issue recurs.

2.92 Commercial Customer

"Commercial Customer" means a Customer purchasing in a business rather than personal capacity, who may be subject to additional or different terms referenced in a separate commercial agreement.

2.93 Company Account

See "Account" above; used interchangeably where the context is a Customer's relationship with the Company specifically.

2.94 Confirmed Order

See "Order" above.

2.95 Content

"Content" means text, images, video, and other material appearing on the Website, including but not limited to Product Page content.

2.96 Delivery Window

"Delivery Window" means the range of dates within which an Order is expected to arrive, as distinct from a single guaranteed Delivery Date.

2.97 Dispute

"Dispute" means any disagreement between a Customer and the Company relating to an Order, Claim, or the interpretation of a Policy.

2.98 Domestic Order

"Domestic Order" means an Order with a Delivery Address in the same country as the Fulfillment Center from which it ships, as distinct from an International Order.

2.99 Effective Communication

"Effective Communication" means a communication delivered through a channel and in a form reasonably calculated to reach the intended recipient, as referenced in the Notices provision.

2.100 Escalated Ticket

See "Escalation Process" as used in the Customer Support Policy.

2.101 Fraud Review

"Fraud Review" means the automated or manual check the Company may apply to an Order before Dispatch where payment or account activity appears anomalous.

2.102 Fulfillment

"Fulfillment" means the combined process of picking, packing, and Dispatching an Order from a Fulfillment Center.

2.103 General Feedback

See "Feedback and Complaints" as used in the Customer Support Policy.

2.104 Grievance

"Grievance" means a formal complaint raised by a Customer that has not been resolved through the standard Support Team process and is escalated to the Grievance Officer under applicable law.

2.105 Incident

"Incident" means an operational event, such as a Fulfillment Center disruption or a Website outage, that may affect Order processing or Delivery Estimates.

2.106 International Order

"International Order" means an Order with a Delivery Address in a different country from the Fulfillment Center from which it ships.

2.107 Item

See "Product" above; used interchangeably in some sections for readability.

2.108 Line Item

"Line Item" means a single Product and quantity combination within an Order, as distinct from the Order as a whole.

2.109 Live Agent

"Live Agent" means a Support Team member handling a Chat Session or phone call in real time, as distinct from an automated response.

2.110 Notification

"Notification" means any Effective Communication sent to a Customer regarding an Order, Ticket, or Account, whether by email, SMS, or in-app message.

2.111 Order Cancellation

See "Cancellation Window" above.

2.112 Order History

"Order History" means the list of past Orders visible to a Customer on their Account.

2.113 Payment Authorization

See "Hold" above.

2.114 Product Condition

"Product Condition" means the physical state of a returned Product as assessed against the standards in the Return and Refund Policy.

2.115 Product Defect

"Product Defect" means a fault in a Product attributable to materials or workmanship, as distinct from damage caused after delivery.

2.116 Promotional Code

See "Coupon Code" above.

2.117 Quality Assurance

"Quality Assurance" means the internal review process applied to Support Team interactions and returned Products to confirm Policy is being applied consistently.

2.118 Refund Confirmation

"Refund Confirmation" means the notification sent to a Customer once a refund has been processed.

2.119 Regional Pricing

"Regional Pricing" means pricing that varies by Delivery Address region, as described in the Seasonal Promotions Policy and elsewhere.

2.120 Reopened Ticket

See "Closed Ticket" above.

2.121 Return Merchandise

"Return Merchandise" means a Product that has been approved for return and is in transit back to a Fulfillment Center.

2.122 Service Interruption

See "Incident" above.

2.123 Standard Delivery

"Standard Delivery" means delivery under the non-expedited terms described in the Shipping and Delivery document.

2.124 Store Policy

"Store Policy" means, collectively, this document together with the other policy documents it cross-references.

2.125 Terms of Use

"Terms of Use" means the separate document governing use of the Website generally, distinct from the transaction-specific Policies referenced in this document.

2.126 Third-Party Service Provider

"Third-Party Service Provider" means a vendor engaged by the Company to support Website operations, such as a Shipping Carrier or payment processor, distinct from a Third-Party Seller.

2.127 Transaction Record

See "Invoice" above.

2.128 Unit

See "Product" above; used specifically where referring to a single physical instance of a Product bearing its own Serial Number.

2.129 User-Generated Content

"User-Generated Content" means any review, rating, or other content submitted by a Customer to the Website.

2.130 Verification

"Verification" means the process of confirming a Customer's identity or Order details before processing a Claim, refund, or Account change.

3. Return Window and Item Condition

Customers have 30 days from the Delivery Date to initiate a return. The 30 day window is measured from the Delivery Date recorded by the carrier, not the Order date, and is not extended for weekends or public holidays, except where a public holiday falls on the final day of the window, in which case the window is extended to the next Business Day.

Where an Order contains multiple Products with different Delivery Dates because of a split shipment, the 30 day window for each Product runs independently from its own Delivery Date, not from the Delivery Date of the first item in the Order to arrive.

3.1 Standard Condition Requirements

Returned Products must be in their original packaging with all included accessories, manuals, and tags attached. A Product that has been used beyond simply trying it on or functionally testing it, or that is missing its original packaging, may still be accepted at a reduced refund and a 10 percent restocking fee, at the discretion of the Support Team member reviewing the return.

Products returned in a condition that suggests damage occurred after delivery through Customer misuse, rather than a manufacturing defect, may be declined for return under this Policy and instead referred to the applicable warranty process, where one exists for the Product category in question.

4. Category Exclusions

Certain Product categories and Product conditions are excluded from the standard return terms set out in Section 3 above.

4.1 Grocery and Final Sale Exclusions

Grocery items and any Product marked Final Sale on its product page at the time of purchase are not eligible for return under this Policy, regardless of condition. This exclusion exists because grocery items are perishable and cannot be safely resold once delivered, and because Final Sale pricing already reflects a clearance discount applied specifically because the Product is sold as non-returnable; a Customer who wishes to confirm whether a specific Order line was Final Sale at the time of purchase should refer to the Order Confirmation, which records this status at the time the Order was placed.

4.2 Store Credit and Gift Card Purchases

Products purchased using store credit or a gift card are still eligible for return under the same terms as any other Order; the refund in that case is issued back to a new store credit balance rather than to a payment card, since the original tender was not a card transaction.

5. Initiating a Return

5.1 How to Start a Return

To start a return, contact the Support Team with the Order ID and the reason for the return through the channels described in the Customer Support Policy. The Support Team will confirm eligibility based on the criteria in Sections 3 and 4 above and, where eligible, issue return instructions by email.

5.2 Who Pays Return Shipping

A prepaid return label is issued automatically for defective or incorrect items at no cost to the Customer. For a change of mind return on an otherwise eligible Product, the Customer is responsible for return shipping costs unless a promotional free-returns period is active at the time of the Order, in which case the Order Confirmation states this explicitly.

6. Refunds

6.1 Refund Method

Refunds are issued to the original payment method used at checkout. Where the original payment method is no longer valid, for example an expired card, the refund is issued as store credit instead, and the Customer is notified of this by email at the time the refund is processed.

6.2 Refund Timing

Once a returned Product is received at the returns processing center and inspected against the conditions in Section 3.1, a refund is issued within 5 to 7 Business Days. Bank or card issuer processing after that point can add a few additional days before the funds are visible in the Customer's account, which is outside the processing time the Company directly controls.

7. Contact and Escalation

Questions about a specific return that are not answered by this Policy should be directed to the Support Team with the Order ID. If a Customer disagrees with a return eligibility decision made under Sections 3 or 4 above, the case can be escalated for a second review by a senior Support Team member in accordance with the escalation process described in the Customer Support Policy.

8. General Provisions

The provisions in this section apply to this Policy in addition to the operative terms set out earlier in this document, and are substantially the same across every published NorthStar Retail policy document.

8.1 Limitation of Liability

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL THE COMPANY BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR ANY LOSS OF PROFITS OR REVENUES, WHETHER INCURRED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO A CUSTOMER'S USE OF THE WEBSITE OR ANY PRODUCT PURCHASED THROUGH IT.

THE COMPANY'S TOTAL LIABILITY TO A CUSTOMER FOR ANY CLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS POLICY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE, SHALL NOT EXCEED THE AMOUNT ACTUALLY PAID BY THE CUSTOMER FOR THE PRODUCT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM.

8.2 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Policy is governed by the laws applicable in the jurisdiction in which the Company is incorporated, without regard to conflict of law principles. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Policy that cannot be resolved through the Support Team or the escalation process described elsewhere in this document shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in that jurisdiction, except where applicable local consumer protection law requires otherwise.

8.3 Force Majeure

The Company shall not be liable for any delay or failure to perform any obligation under this Policy where the delay or failure results from any cause beyond the Company's reasonable control, including but not limited to natural disaster, labor dispute, carrier disruption, governmental action, or telecommunications or internet service failure.

8.4 Severability

If any provision of this Policy is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court or other authority of competent jurisdiction, that provision shall be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary, and the remaining provisions of this Policy shall remain in full force and effect.

8.5 Entire Agreement

This Policy, together with any documents it expressly incorporates by reference, constitutes the entire agreement between the Customer and the Company with respect to the subject matter herein, and supersedes any prior or contemporaneous understanding, whether written or oral, on that subject matter.

8.6 Amendment and Modification

The Company reserves the right to amend or modify this Policy at any time. Where a change is material, the Company will make reasonable efforts to notify Customers, though the primary record of the Policy in effect at a given time is the version and Effective Date shown on the document itself. Continued use of the Website following a change constitutes acceptance of the amended Policy.

8.7 Assignment

The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Policy, in whole or in part, to any successor entity, including in connection with a merger, acquisition, or sale of assets, without the consent of the Customer. A Customer may not assign any rights under this Policy without the prior written consent of the Company.

8.8 Notices

Notices to a Customer under this Policy are considered effectively given when sent to the email address associated with the Customer's account or Order. Notices to the Company should be directed to the Support Team through the channels described in this document.

8.9 Waiver

No failure or delay by the Company in exercising any right under this Policy shall operate as a waiver of that right, nor shall any single or partial exercise of a right preclude any further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

8.10 No Third-Party Beneficiaries

This Policy is intended solely for the benefit of the Company and the Customer placing an Order, and does not confer any rights or remedies on any third party.

8.11 Indemnification

The Customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from any claim, loss, or expense, including reasonable legal fees, arising out of the Customer's breach of this Policy or misuse of the Website, except to the extent the claim, loss, or expense arises from the Company's own negligence or breach of this Policy.

8.12 Intellectual Property

All content on the Website, including product descriptions, images, and the Website's design, is owned by the Company or its licensors and is protected by applicable intellectual property law. Nothing in this Policy grants a Customer any right to reproduce, distribute, or create derivative works from that content beyond what is reasonably necessary to complete and review an Order.

8.13 Confidentiality

Where this Policy or any correspondence with the Support Team discloses non-public information about the Company's internal processes, the Customer agrees not to disclose that information to any third party except as required by law.

8.14 Dispute Resolution

Before initiating any formal legal proceeding relating to this Policy, the Customer agrees to first raise the dispute with the Support Team and allow a reasonable opportunity, not to exceed 30 days, for the dispute to be resolved informally through the escalation process described in the Customer Support Policy.

8.15 Electronic Communications Consent

By placing an Order, the Customer consents to receive communications from the Company electronically, including by email and, where a mobile number is provided, by SMS. The Customer agrees that any such electronic communication satisfies any legal requirement that a communication be in writing.

8.16 Age Restriction

The Website is intended for use by individuals who are at least 18 years of age, or the age of legal majority in their jurisdiction if higher. The Company does not knowingly permit Orders to be placed by individuals below this age without the involvement of a parent or guardian as the Account holder.

8.17 Compliance With Laws

Both the Company and the Customer agree to comply with all applicable laws in connection with any Order and any exercise of rights under this Policy, including applicable consumer protection, data protection, and export control laws.

8.18 Relationship of the Parties

Nothing in this Policy creates a partnership, joint venture, agency, or employment relationship between the Company and the Customer. Each party acts as an independent party in connection with any Order.

8.19 Interpretation and Headings

Section headings in this Policy are included for convenience of reference only and do not affect the interpretation of the provisions they introduce. Where this Policy uses the word 'includes' or 'including', it is not intended to be limiting unless expressly stated otherwise.

8.20 Language

This Policy is prepared in English. Where a translated version is made available for convenience, the English version governs in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the two.

8.21 Survival

Provisions of this Policy that by their nature should survive termination of a Customer's Account or the resolution of a specific Order, including but not limited to Limitation of Liability, Indemnification, and Governing Law and Jurisdiction, shall survive any such termination or resolution.

8.22 Class Action Waiver

To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, any Dispute between a Customer and the Company shall be resolved on an individual basis, and a Customer agrees not to bring or participate in any class, collective, or representative proceeding against the Company in connection with this Policy.

8.23 Export Control Compliance

Products purchased through the Website may be subject to export control laws of the country of origin and the Customer's own jurisdiction. The Customer agrees not to export, re-export, or transfer a Product in violation of any applicable export control law.

8.24 Third-Party Links and Services

This Policy does not govern any third-party website, service, or Third-Party Service Provider that a Customer may interact with in connection with an Order, including a Shipping Carrier's own tracking website. The Company is not responsible for the content, accuracy, or practices of any such third party.

8.25 Data Retention

Records relating to an Order, Ticket, or Claim are retained for the period necessary to comply with Applicable Law, resolve Disputes, and support the Audit Trail described elsewhere in this Policy, after which they are deleted or anonymized in accordance with the Company's data retention schedule.

8.26 Accessibility

The Company aims to make the Website usable by Customers using assistive technology. A Customer who encounters an accessibility barrier when attempting to exercise a right described in this Policy should contact the Support Team, which can complete the relevant process on the Customer's behalf where the barrier cannot be immediately resolved.

8.27 Regulatory Complaints

Nothing in this Policy limits a Customer's right to raise a complaint with an applicable consumer protection or data protection regulator, independent of and in addition to the Support Team and Grievance Officer channels described in this document.

8.28 Currency and Pricing Display

Prices on the Website are displayed in the currency applicable to the Customer's selected region and include or exclude Sales Tax as indicated at the point of display; the final price confirmed at Checkout, inclusive of applicable Sales Tax, is the price that governs the Order.

8.29 Order Verification

The Company reserves the right to perform Verification or Fraud Review on any Order before Dispatch, and may delay, cancel, or request additional information for an Order where Verification cannot be completed to the Company's reasonable satisfaction.

8.30 Electronic Signatures

Where this Policy or any related process calls for a Customer's agreement or signature, an electronic action such as clicking 'I agree' or completing Checkout is treated as a valid signature for all purposes under Applicable Law that permits electronic signatures.

8.31 Communications Language

Support Team communications default to English unless a Customer has requested translated correspondence under the Language Support provisions referenced elsewhere in the Store Policy, in which case that request governs future correspondence on the same Ticket.

8.32 System Availability

The Company does not guarantee uninterrupted availability of the Website, and scheduled or unscheduled downtime may temporarily prevent a Customer from placing an Order, tracking an existing Order, or raising a Ticket. Where downtime affects a time-bound right under this Policy, such as the Return Window or a Cancellation Window, the Company will apply a reasonable Grace Period to account for the period of unavailability.

8.33 Records as Evidence

The Audit Trail, Order Confirmation, and other electronic records maintained by the Company are admissible as evidence of the terms and timing of an Order or Ticket in any Dispute, to the same extent as an equivalent paper record would be.

8.34 Order of Precedence

Where a conflict arises between the operative sections of this Policy and the General Provisions in this section, the operative sections govern for the specific subject matter they address, and the General Provisions govern for all other matters not specifically addressed elsewhere in this document.

8.35 Review Cycle

This Policy is scheduled for review no later than the Next Scheduled Review date stated on the cover page, though the Company may review and amend it sooner where a legal, operational, or Customer feedback driven need arises.

8.36 Internal Distribution

This document is distributed internally through the Policy team's document management system and is made available to Support Team personnel on request; it should not be forwarded outside the Company without the Policy team's approval, consistent with the Confidential classification stated on the cover page.

8.37 Superseded Versions

A version of this Policy that has been superseded by a later version, as reflected in the Document Revision History, is retained by the Policy team for the period required under applicable record-keeping obligations, but is no longer the operative version for any Order placed after the later version's Effective Date.

8.38 Counterparts and Format

This Policy is maintained in a single authoritative electronic format; where a printed or otherwise reformatted copy is circulated for reference, the electronic version held by the Policy team remains authoritative in the event of any discrepancy between the two.

9. Related Documents

This Policy should be read together with the other documents in the Company's policy set listed below, each of which is maintained and versioned separately from this document.

10. Additional Terms for Customers Located in India

This section applies in addition to, and does not replace, the terms set out elsewhere in this Policy for Customers whose delivery address on the relevant Order is located in India.

Where a right, remedy, or timeframe described elsewhere in this Policy is more favorable to the Customer than a right, remedy, or timeframe available under the Consumer Protection Act and applicable rules in force in India, the more favorable term to the Customer shall apply, notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in this document.

Grievances that are not resolved to the Customer's satisfaction through the Support Team channels described in this document may be referred to the Company's designated Grievance Officer, whose contact details are published on the Website's dedicated grievance page as required by applicable law.

The Grievance Officer will acknowledge a referred Grievance within a reasonable period and provide a substantive response consistent with the timelines set out under applicable Indian consumer protection regulation, which may differ from the general Service Level commitments described elsewhere in this document.

Nothing in this section limits a Customer's right to approach a Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission of appropriate jurisdiction under the Consumer Protection Act, independent of and without first exhausting the Support Team or Grievance Officer channels described above, where the Customer chooses to do so.

Where an Order under this Policy is placed by a Customer through the Company's e-commerce platform as defined under the Consumer Protection (E-Commerce) Rules, the disclosures required under those Rules, including country of origin and importer details where applicable, are provided on the relevant Product Page rather than repeated in this document.

Appendix A (11. Illustrative Examples)

The examples below are provided to help Support Team personnel apply this Policy consistently to common scenarios. They illustrate how the operative sections above apply in practice and do not themselves create any additional right or obligation beyond what is stated in the numbered sections of this document.

Example 1: Grocery item returned within the window

A Customer purchases Organic Almonds under the Grocery Category and requests a return 10 days after the Delivery Date, stating only that they changed their mind. Because Grocery items are excluded from return under Section 4.1 regardless of condition or how quickly the request is made, the return is declined and the Support Team explains the Grocery exclusion rather than evaluating item condition.

Example 2: Final Sale item in otherwise new condition

A Customer returns a Power Bank that was marked Final Sale at the time of purchase, still sealed in its original packaging, within the 30 day window. Even though the item condition would otherwise satisfy Section 3.1, the Final Sale marking recorded on the Order Confirmation under Section 4.1 makes it ineligible for return.

Example 3: Used item missing original packaging

A Customer returns a non-excluded Apparel item within the window, but the original packaging was discarded and the garment shows light wear from being tried on several times. This falls under Section 3.1: the item may be accepted at a reduced refund with a 10 percent Restocking Fee rather than declined outright.

Example 4: Split Shipment with different Delivery Dates

An Order ships as a Split Shipment with one Product delivered five days before the other. A Customer asks whether the Return Window for the whole Order started on the first delivery. Per Section 3, each Product's window runs independently from its own Delivery Date, so the second Product's window has not yet started when the first item's is already five days in.

Document Control

This document, NSR-POL-RET-014, is maintained by the Policy team and distributed internally for use by Support Team personnel in responding to Customer inquiries. Questions about the content of this Policy that are not resolved through normal Support Team channels should be directed to the Policy team directly.
